The procedures described in Section 3.2 shall then govern Seller's response (or deemed response) and the terms on which Buyer may terminate this Agreement, waive such objection, or be deemed to waive such objection, provided Seller shall issue an updated Seller's Title Notice, if at all, within five (5) business days from the date it receives the updated Buyer's Title Notice.

Such assignment or transfer, if any, shall not relieve the original named Buyer of its obligations under this Agreement in the event that the assignee or transferee should default under this Agreement.

12. Casualty Loss. If all or any part of the Property is substantially damaged by fire, casualty, the elements or any other cause, Seller shall immediately give notice to Buyer, and Buyer shall have the right to terminate this Agreement and receive back the Deposit by giving notice thereof to Seller within thirty (30) days after Seller’s notice. 13. Condemnation. If any condemnation or eminent domain (a “Taking”) affects all or any part of the Property prior to Closing, or if any proceeding for a Taking is commenced prior to Closing, or if notice of the contemplated commencement of a Taking is given prior to Closing, Seller shall deliver written notice of such Taking to Buyer and Buyer, to the extent such Taking is material, shall have the right, at its sole option of terminating this Agreement (by written notice to Seller within thirty (30) days after receipt by Buyer of written notice from Seller of the Taking) and receiving a full refund of the Deposit. For purposes hereof, a “material” Taking shall mean a Taking of all or any portion of the Property which causes (i) a material reduction in the size of the Property or a material interference with the use and operation of the Property, (ii) a reduction in the number of parking spaces available at the Property so as to cause the property to be out of compliance with the then-current parking requirements of any governmental authority, (iii) a material adverse effect on the ingress and egress to and from the Property, or (iv) a taking that eliminates any portion of a building. If Buyer does not terminate this Agreement, the Purchase Price shall be reduced by the amount of any award or damage actually received by Seller prior to Closing, and Seller shall, at Closing, assign to Buyer all of Seller’s right, title and interest in and to any awards or damages not actually received by Seller prior to Closing but to which Seller may have become entitled or may thereafter be entitled by reason of any exercise of the power of eminent domain or condemnation with respect to or for the Taking of the Property or any portion thereof. Prior to the Closing Date, Seller shall not designate counsel, appear in, or otherwise act with respect to the condemnation proceedings without Buyer’s prior written consent. Buyer shall not initiate or participate in the initiation of condemnation proceedings, or contemplate commencement of a Taking, against all or any portion of the Property.

14. Remedies. If either party defaults or breaches this Agreement, and fails to cure the same in full within thirty (30) days following receipt of written notice of such default or breach by the non-defaulting party, the non-defaulting party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the defaulting party, in accordance with applicable Minnesota statutes. To the extent Buyer terminates this Agreement due to a default or breach on the part of Seller, Buyer shall be entitled to a return of the Deposit. To the extent Seller terminates this Agreement due to a default or breach on the part of Buyer, the Deposit plus any interest that accrued on it, shall be released to Seller as liquidated damages, the parties agreeing that Seller’s actual damages in the event of a Buyer default would be extremely difficult if not impossible to determine. The right to terminate this Agreement, by a non-defaulting party, and return or release (as applicable) of the Deposit, shall be the sole and exclusive remedy available under this Agreement for such non-defaulting party. A party's failure to close the transaction contemplated in this Agreement on the Closing Date (subject to any extensions expressly described in this Agreement) shall constitute a breach of this Agreement, except to the extent due to the other party's non-performance, default, or breach.
