Hi,

I'm writing to support B.BQ Chicken's request for a liquor license at their location around the corner from our house. I saw a note that indicated that someone had objected due to two bars being next to each other. Neither B.BQ Chicken nor Em Que Viet are bars in the sense that would concern me at all, and of course Bap & Chicken was in that space with Em Que Viet next door with no apparent ill effects. I encourage its approval.

Thanks,
