This is amazing!! You guys have such a great handle on setting up for launch, and thanks so much for keeping us in the loop as you get ready!

I had such a great time meeting with everyone back in March - everyone was so friendly and welcoming, and it's stood out as one of my favourite training trips thus far.

It's also been really amazing to see SPPL content all over the catalog, and I've drawn on your strategy as a great example when training other libraries to gear up for launch.
