

Attachment A
Recommended Projects – 2017 Innovation Fund

Project Title and Description	Lead Organization	Project Stakeholders	Recommended Funding
District Council Racial Equity Plans            District Councils will develop equity plans for their organizations with assistance from a consultant and develop a reporting form for the AA/EEO and inclusivity reports submitted to PED annually that are appropriate to organizations of their size that will measure progress toward equity.	District 1 Community Council	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– Staff/volunteer leadership and residents from District Councils 1, 2, 3, 5, 8 and 13</li> <li>– City Planning and Economic Development Department</li> <li>– Lisa Tabor of Culture Brokers</li> </ul>	$54,200
Community Engagement Research Project – Phase 2            In the second phase of research, District Councils will investigate 1) challenges posed by the current District Council system and faced by individual District Councils, and 2) how District Councils could meet those challenges if the system were to be modified and/or better resourced in the future.	Union Park District Council (District 13)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– Executive Directors from District Councils 10, 13, 14</li> </ul>	$38,400
Community Low-Power FM Radio            Frogtown Neighborhood Association and Dayton’s Bluff Community Council will use new low power FM radio states, WFNU and WEQY, to increase both organization’s capacity for community engagement. Training will be made available to volunteers to operate broadcast equipment and create meaningful programming for community-building purposes.	Frogtown Neighborhood Association/Dayton’s Bluff District 4 Community Council	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– Radio station staff and volunteers at WFNA (operated by Frogtown Neighborhood Association) and WEQY (operated by Dayton’s Bluff Community Council)</li> </ul>	$5,400 (Total, $2,700 each)
		Total	$98,000