Dear Frogtown Rondo Partners:

Unfortunately, Andy Barnett has decided to end his service as the coordinating consultant for the Frogtown Rondo Home Fund in order to pursue a new position. Beginning in March, he will be returning to his home state of North Carolina to serve as the Executive Director of Asheville Area Habitat for Humanity.

We appreciate Andy's leadership over the last three years. He brought a wealth of knowledge and passion to this work and effectively managed the many relationships needed to make our collaboration effective. We wish him great success in his new role!

The Family Housing Fund remains committed to supporting the City of St. Paul in enriching the quality of life in the Frogtown and Rondo neighborhoods by connecting and enhancing housing resources and activities. Just last week, the Family Housing Fund's board of directors approved funding for operating support for the Frogtown Rondo Home Fund for 2016 which included the coordinating consultant. We intend to begin the search for a new coordinating consultant shortly to allow a smooth transition and maintain momentum on critical projects.

And I look forward to meeting you at my first meeting of the Frogtown Rondo Home Fund Partners meeting on March 24!

Regards,

Ellen Sahli
President
