Hello Mr. Miller,

Sorry for the delay of this email. We have you on the docket for March 3, 2020 to review the boarding fee at your property. However, since the board up fee was included in the claim you mentioned below, the hearing is not necessary on March 3 and I will close the matter at that time. The matter was before Council on January 8, 2020, in which you would have received an invoice from the Office of Financial Services already and you may present the invoice to the insurance co, if you haven't done so.

Thank you.

Good day,

This email is in relation to a discussion Scott Miller had with Marcia Moermond yesterday, Wednesday, January 28, 2020.

After further investigation with the Rossmor Association Manager, I found out that Hartford did include the $517.00 board up in the total for the claim. With that said, should we just not plan on the hearing? The Association manager stated she would cut a check from the association to pay for the assessment. Please advise.

Thank you so much and I apologize for taking up your time yesterday. I hope I didn't create too much of a distraction.
