

SUBLEASE

THIS SUBLEASE (“Sublease”) is entered into effective as of May 1, 2023 (“Effective Date”) by and between The Rondo Community Land Trust a Minnesota nonprofit corporation (“Landlord”) and The City of St. Paul (“Tenant”). Landlord is a tenant of the real property located at 1041 Selby Avenue, St. Paul, Minnesota 55104, Ramsey County, Minnesota legally described as Lot 28, Block 3 of Roger’s Addition, Ramsey County, Minnesota (the "Land") and the approximately 7,835 square foot building (the "Building") located on the Land, together with all improvements, fixtures, rights, privileges and appurtenances thereto (collectively the "Property") pursuant to the terms of a Lease dated December 22, 2023 between Landlord and Land Bank Twin Cities, Inc., the fee title owner of the Property ("Sublease"). Tenant desires to Sublease a portion of the Building ("Premises") from Landlord.

In consideration of the promises and covenants contained herein, Landlord and Tenant agree as follows:

1. Sublease of Property. Landlord hereby Subleases to Tenant and Tenant hereby takes from Landlord, for the Term hereafter set and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Sublease, the Premises identified above.

2. Term of Sublease.

Initial Term. The term of this Sublease (“Initial Term”) will commence on the Effective Date and will expire on April 30, 2026.

a. Option to Extend Term of Sublease. Provided that Tenant is not in default under the provisions of this Sublease, Tenant shall have the right to extend the Initial Term of this Sublease for one (1) additional term of three years (the “Extended Term”). Tenant may extend this Sublease for the Extended Term by giving written notice of such extension to Landlord at least one hundred eighty (180) days prior to the expiration of the Initial Term.

As used in this Sublease, “Term,” “term of this Sublease,” “Sublease Term” and similar terms shall refer to the Initial Term, together with the Extended Term if any.

3. Base Rent. Tenant agrees to pay to Landlord annual base rent (“Base Rent”) for the Property during the Term as follows; provided, however, that the first payment of Base Rent shall not be due until one month after the Effective Date:

Initial Term:	Annual Amount:	Monthly Amount
Sublease Year 1 through Sublease Year 3	$22,500.00	$1,875.00

The rent for each Extended Term will be an amount equal to the “Fair Market Value” then in effect for similar properties and shall be determined as follows. Fair Market Value shall be the annual fair market Base Rent for the Property as mutually agreed upon by the parties. If the parties cannot agree upon the Fair Market Value for a particular Extended Term within thirty (30) days following Tenant’s exercise of the option for the Extended Term, Tenant, at its option and within such 30-day period, may (a) rescind the exercise of such option, in which case this Sublease shall terminate effective as of the end of the current Term or (b) elect to have the Fair Market Value determined by an appraisal process whereby the parties shall mutually select a duly licensed commercial real estate appraiser who (i) has at least ten (10) years of experience in the leasing of similar properties in the Saint Paul, MN metropolitan area and (ii) has not represented either party, or an affiliate of a party. If the parties cannot agree upon a duly licensed commercial real estate appraiser, each party shall select one appraiser who meets the qualifications of (i) and (ii) above and the two appraisers so selected shall agree upon a third appraiser who shall meet the qualifications of (i) and (ii) above. The third-party appraiser or appraisers, as applicable, shall determine whether Landlord’s proposed Fair Market Value or Tenant’s proposed Fair Market Value most closely approximates the actual Fair Market Value and such determination shall be binding on the parties. The cost of all appraisals shall be shared equally by the parties.

As used in this Sublease, the term “Sublease Year” shall mean a twelve-month period commencing on _____, 2023, or on an anniversary date thereof.

Annual Base Rent shall be payable in equal monthly installments in advance on the 1st day of every month during the Term. If the Term commences on a day other than the first day of a month, or if the Term expires on a day other than the last day of a month, the Base Rent for the partial month shall be prorated and adjusted accordingly.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Sublease, monthly installments of Base Rent and other sums payable by Tenant hereunder shall be due without setoff, counterclaim, or abatement.

4. Security Deposit. There shall be no security deposit.

5. Operating Expenses, Taxes and Insurance. During the term of this Sublease, and in addition to the Base Rent described in Section 3 above, Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as additional rent, Tenant’s Proportionate Share (as hereinafter defined) of Landlord’s Operating Expenses (as hereinafter defined):

a. For purposes of this Sublease, “Landlord’s Operating Expenses” (or CAM charges) are defined with respect to any calendar year to mean all costs, expenses and disbursements which Landlord shall pay or become obligated to pay in connection with the management, ownership, operation, maintenance, replacement and repair of the Building and Property and all improvements from time to time existing, and of the personal property, fixtures, machinery, equipment, systems and apparatus located in or used in connection with the Building and Property, including but limited to the following costs incurred by Landlord in such calendar year with respect to the Property: (i) Taxes levied against the Building or Property; (ii) all other costs which, under generally accepted accounting principles are expenses rather than capital improvements and which the Landlord will incur in owning, maintaining and operating the Project, exclusive of depreciation, interest or payments of principal on any mortgage or other encumbrance; (iii) cost of capital improvements made to the Building subsequent to the commencement date of this Sublease which will improve the operating efficiency of the Building, or reduce its operating expenses, which costs will be amortized to the extent that operating costs are thereby reduced; (iv) all costs of other capital expenditures made for repairs to the Building or purchase of equipment, which costs will be amortized over the expected life of such improvements; (v) all costs of all premiums for policies of insurance for the Building and the Project; (vi) utility expenses, including but not limited to amounts payable to Xcel Energy and City of St. Paul not separately metered for the Premises (“Utilities”); (vii) removal of snow, ice, rubbish and debris; rental of machinery and equipment and other non-real estate assets used in the operation and maintenance of the Building and Property; (viii) repairing or replacing of paving, curbs, walkways, landscaping, drainage, water lines, sanitary and storm sewer lines, electrical lines and other equipment serving the Property on which the Building or any part thereof is constructed or is to be constructed; and (ix) heating, ventilating and air-conditioning; costs.

As used in this Sublease, “Taxes” shall mean real estate taxes, assessments, sewer rents, rates and charges, permit and license fees, taxes based upon receipt of rent, special service area assessments and any other federal, state or local charge, whether general, special, ordinary or extraordinary, which may now or hereafter be assessed against the Property or any portion thereof and payable in any year during the Term hereof and shall also include any personal property taxes imposed upon fixtures, machinery, equipment, systems and apparatus located therein or used in connection therewith (including any rental or similar taxes levied in lieu of or in addition to general real and/or personal property taxes). If a special assessment payable in installments is levied against the Property, Taxes for any year shall include only the installment of such assessment and any interest payable or paid during such year. Taxes shall not include any federal, state or local sales, use, franchise, capital stock, inheritance, general income, gift or estate taxes, except that if a change occurs in the method of taxation resulting in whole or in part the substitution of any such taxes, or any other assessment, for any Taxes as above defined, such substituted taxes or assessments shall be included in the definition of Taxes.

c. For purposes of this Sublease, “Tenant’s Proportionate Share” shall mean that percentage calculated by dividing (a) the square feet of the Premises, by (b) the total square feet comprising the Building. Tenant’s Proportionate Share is set forth on Exhibit A.

i. The amount of Tenant’s Proportionate Share of Landlord’s Operating Expenses during the first calendar year (or remainder of the current calendar year, as applicable) of the Initial Term is set forth on Exhibit A, payable in equal monthly installments as specified on Exhibit A due on the 1st day of each month with Tenant’s payment of Base Rent.

ii. Prior to the first day of each subsequent calendar year during the Initial Term or Extended Terms (if applicable), Landlord shall estimate Landlord's Operating Expenses that will be incurred by Landlord for such calendar year and shall give to Tenant a copy of such estimate along with the amount of Tenant's Proportionate Share.

iii. Within thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar year during the Initial Term or Extended Terms (if applicable), Landlord shall give Tenant a written statement with supporting documentation detailing the actual Operating Expenses incurred by Landlord in the previous calendar year. If the amount paid by Tenant during the preceding calendar year is more than Tenant's Proportionate Share, the excess shall be credited against the next payment(s) due from Tenant or promptly paid to Tenant if the term of this Sublease has ended. If the amount paid by Tenant is less than Tenant's Proportionate Share, Tenant shall pay Landlord the balance due within thirty five (35) days after the written statement is delivered to Tenant.

d. In the event Landlord determines that the operating expenses are higher or lower than the estimated amount, in lieu of waiting until the end of the year, Landlord may, but is not obligated, to adjust the monthly payment amount upon 30 days' written notice to Tenant.

6. Use. Tenant will operate the Premises for solely for business office purposes, in compliance with all applicable federal, state and local laws, ordinances, codes, rules, regulations, declarations and orders. No part of the Premises will be used for any purpose which constitutes a nuisance, or which is dangerous, illegal or offensive. 7. Permits and Compliance with Laws. Tenant will, at its sole cost and expense, comply with the requirements of all federal, state, local, or municipal laws, orders, and regulations and with any lawful direction of public officers that impose any duty on Tenant with respect to its use and occupancy of the Premises. Tenant shall take good care of the Premises and fixtures, and keep them in good repair and free from filth, overloading, danger of fire or any pest or nuisance, and repair or replace (as necessary or appropriate) any damage or breakage to the Premises or the Building done by Tenant or Tenant's agents, employees, contractors, or invitees, or by Tenant's equipment or installations under the supervision and subject to the approval of Landlord, and within a reasonable period of time specified by Landlord. At the end of the Sublease Term or any renewal or extension hereof, Tenant shall quit and surrender the Premises in a condition substantially as good as when received by Tenant, normal wear and tear and damage by casualty excepted. In the event Tenant fails to maintain, repair or replace the Premises or parts thereof or fixtures thereto as provided for herein, Landlord shall have the right, but not the obligation, to perform such maintenance, repair or replacement as is required of Tenant in which event Tenant shall promptly reimburse Landlord for its costs in providing such maintenance, repair or replacements together with a five percent (5%) charge for Landlord's overhead. b. Landlord reserves the right to the exclusive use of the roof and exterior walls of the Building which Landlord is so obligated to maintain and repair. If any portion of the Premises which Landlord is obligated to maintain or repair is damaged by the negligence or willful actions or omissions of Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors, or frequenters, then repairs or replacements necessitated by or appropriate

If this Sublease is not terminated as above provided and if the Premises are wholly or substantially untenable as aforesaid, Landlord, at its expense, shall restore the same to the condition in which Landlord furnished the Premises to Tenant at the commencement of the Sublease Term. Landlord shall be under no obligation to restore any alterations, improvements or additions to the Premises made by Tenant. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord shall be entitled to the full proceeds of any insurance coverage carried by Landlord for damage to those items provided by Landlord either directly or through an allowance to Tenant which Landlord is obligated to or elects to restore as herein provided.

If Tenant is in default hereunder, Landlord may terminate this Sublease and the rights of Tenant hereunder effective upon delivery of written notice to Tenant and to seek recovery from Tenant of any unpaid amounts due hereunder incurred by Landlord as a result of such default, in addition to any other rights or remedies available to Landlord by law or in equity.

23. Overdue Payments. Tenant agrees that this Sublease shall be subordinate to any mortgage which may now or hereafter encumber the Property and to any and all advances to be made thereunder and to the interest thereon and all renewals, replacements and extension thereof. If the holder of any such mortgage elects to have Tenant's interest in this Sublease deemed to be superior to its security or superior to any mortgage which is junior to its security, then by notice to Tenant from such holder this Sublease shall be deemed superior to such mortgage, whether executed before or after such mortgage. Tenant agrees to execute any instruments which may be deemed by Landlord or such holder or holders as necessary or desirable to further effect the priority or subordination of this Sublease to any such security.

One or more waivers by Landlord or Tenant shall not be construed as a waiver of a subsequent breach of the same covenant, term or condition.
