Mr. Johnson, not a problem. I'll send a follow up letter Friday confirming what you need with samples again as well.

I'll let them know you didn't intentionally miss this morning's hearing. As of right now this will go to Public Hearing in 2 weeks on February 23, maybe with another Legislative Hearing on the 22nd (though I don't know that for sure yet, Friday's letter will confirm).

Thanks, I hope all is well,

Joanna

Hello Joanna. My most sincere apologies. I missed my morning phone conference with the city. They abruptly closed my shop downtown Minneapolis in the Daytons building on Nicollet because of the current police situation. I was informed about it this morning and went down there to get my computer and other equipment out quick before they locked up the building. Somehow i left my phone at my house and when I made it back I had missed the last call from them. I tried calling the number back but it doesn't allow me to get through to someone. Is there any possible way to reschedule? I received their voicemail with everything they didn't approve of. In the last hour I have made contacts with family that will help facilitate a loan to fund whatever the city is needing to see and whatever proof they need to show it will be set aside specifically towards the Fry Code Compliance. I have also spoken with the contractor, and said I need a more extensive detailed list of all projects with timeline, and I want him to get individual bids and timeline from each of the licensed sections. (Plumbing, Heating, Electricity). Etc... I thought I had the proper information sent ahead to move forward. I now understand what is needed from them based on the voicemail they left. I am hoping you can get this email to them or speak with the Legislative hearing group and let me know how I can contact them in regards to this or what I need to do to reset a new meeting with them and keep moving forward. Again, my apologies. I had zero intention of missing this phone meeting.

Thank you Mr. Johnson,

This has been received and sent to staff to review before tomorrow's hearing. As of right now you are first on the agenda at 9 am.

Thanks,
Joanna
