Subject: RE: Marilyn J Dunsmore Application for Legislative Hearing Appeal - 1145 Hudson Rd #410

Hello Mr. Kaufman,

I received your appeal application on behalf of your client, Ms. Dunsmore. You did not fill out the appeal application but no worries, I filled it out. As your client is represented by SMRLS, we have waived the filing fee of $25. Also, this hearing will be conducted in-person on August 9, 2022 at 1:30 p.m. in Room 330 City Hall/Courthouse (Note, construction works are being done on Wabasha side of the courthouse, so plan accordingly). As you are representing Ms. Dunsmore, it's not necessary for her to attend.

Also, note, we have another case of the same, but in apt # 315, also scheduled for August 9.

By the way, is there a way to remove your watermark from the application?

Subject: Marilyn J Dunsmore Application for Legislative Hearing Appeal

Good afternoon,

Enclosed are a cover letter, application for appeal submitted on behalf of Marilyn J Dunsmore, and a Fire Inspection Correction Notice issued to 1145 Hudson Road, Saint Paul Minnesota which applies to Mrs. Dunsmore as the tenant of unit number 410. She has received an Order to Vacate effective 8/8/2022.

As stated in the cover letter, we request that the filing fee be waived for Mrs. Dunsmore given her eligibility for our legal assistance.

Due to appointments related to an upcoming surgery, Mrs. Dunsmore will not be able to attend a hearing, virtually or otherwise, if scheduled for next Tuesday, 8/9/2022. If Mrs. Dunsmore can attend, we intend to seek testimony from her, as well as the testimony of Al Harris, a paralegal with our office who has worked with her, as well as a representative of Housecalls to affirm their plans to bring the unit into compliance with the Fire Code violations identified in the Notice.

Please let me know if you need anything further from me. If you can, please also explain how the hearing will be conducted (if in person, virtual, or teleconference).
