

Transcript of Stamate Skliris voicemail to Clint Zane 3:17 pm Monday March 27, 2023:

Hello Mr. Zane, this is Stamate Skliris calling, the gentleman, the homeowner of 733 Fairview Avenue North property in St. Paul. I understand that you met with Herb today, Mr. Smith, and Herb mentioned something to me thinking that there may be a hearing tomorrow that I am supposed to go to. I tried calling the City of St. Paul and they said I should speak with you. The reason I am calling is to be in communication, Mr. Zane, I am scheduled tomorrow morning at 8:30 am., on behalf of the State of Minnesota, to have a jury trial. On behalf of the state. So I will be in jury trial all day tomorrow. It officially starts at 8:30, but I have to be in Court before that. Even if I wanted to attend remotely, I won't be able to. I don't even know if I am still required to or not, but I wanted to be in communication and let you know if you could share that with the Hearing Officer. The previous hearing I also wasn't there, I had—again, hearing commitments. This can be verified by going on Odyssey in the State of MN. So, please let me know if there is anything else I can do or if I was even required. Whatever else you need from me I am happy to continue working with you folks. But I wanted to reach out to let you know I just found out about 12 minutes ago; I was number 3 on the jury trial list. The number one, my colleague, his victim is not answering--- they are coming from Illinois—answering his calls. The second one was settled so now I am number one. Just wanted to continue communication, Mr. Zane. Thank you for all you do, have a blessed day, sir.
