Summary of Amendments

- Align the City's ordinance with State law
 - Minn. 2023 Session Law Ch. 53, Art. 12, §§ 1 – 9.
 - Effective date January 1, 2024
- Technical formatting

Specifics - At a Glance

Section 233.02

- Amends definition of “Family Member”.
 - The State’s bill expands the definition to capture the reality of family today.

Section 233.04

- Allows use of ESST as soon as it is accrued or frontloaded.
 - The State’s bill does not have a time restriction on when ESST can be used once it is accrued.
 - Allows employees to submit a note from a health provider or their own statement of absence when employers request documentation of ESST usage after an absence of three (3) consecutive workdays.
 - This provision reduces barriers to ESST use while allowing employers to prevent misuse.

Section 233.08

- Requires employer to provide ESST information on earnings statement and pre-hire notice.
 - Knowledge of ESST information creates better access for employees and stronger compliance for employers.

Specifics - At a Glance

Section 233.10

- Requires reinstatement of available ESST balance if employee is rehired within 180 days.
 - The rehire period increases access to ESST for employees through shifting economic and employment conditions such as seasonal employees.

Section 233.13

- Extends time for filing a complaint from two (2) years to three (3) years.
 - The State bill allows three (3) years from the violation to commencement of recovery of damages resulting from violations of the law.
- Allows financial remedies of back-pay, restitution and liquidated damages.
 - The State's bill allows back pay, gratuities, and compensatory damages to employees impacted by violations of the law, multiplied by two (2).
- Allows financial remedies of civil penalties up to the State's amount.
 - The State's bill allows for civil penalties of $10,000 for each violation of the law for each employee impacted by the violation.

Main Outcomes of Ordinance Alignment

- ✓ Will not create a second set of laws
- ✓ Allows for simpler compliance process
- ✓ Makes it easy to do business in Saint Paul
- ✓ Provides equal protection for employees
