Good morning Joanna,

Happy New Year! I hope all is well. I didn't see the other emails (I had looked and thought there was a delay due to the holidays since I didn't see anything). As a result, I didn't realize that I had missed dates until I received Clint's voicemail. And then I realized that I had also missed calls from Marsha. My apologies, my 6 year old son is taking online classes and my ringer is generally off during the day. I had something to sort out with mechanical as a result of the change in inspectors, which is now cleared up. And I have an appointment with Clint for a final inspection on this Friday the 14th. I am requesting that this be stayed without losing funds one more time.

Warm regards,
Lorie
