Winners Pleased In Recent Arcade Slogan Contest

With feelings ranging from complete surprise and amazement to one case tinged with rueful amusement the winners of the Arcade Slogan contest were a pretty pleased lot of people last week.

The winner of the first prize, A. C. Carlson, 962 Arcade St., very nearly missed getting his entry in, and winning the $50 Victory Bond. Mr. Carlson, a druggist at Gerber's Drug Store, 962 Arcade, won with "Shop on Arcade, Where Savings are Made," a little slogan he composed when the blanks were brought into the store.

"I thought of one almost at once, and wrote it down, but didn't send it in," he said. The next day one of the girls in the store asked me what I had done with it and told me I should send it in. And it won."

Little 8-year-old Nancy Erickson, 802 Sims Ave., who won a coffee table from Schweitz Furniture, 1000 Arcade, was pretty pleased about the whole thing. So was her mother, who assures us the coffee table will be put to very good use.
