Good afternoon Mai,

Please see attached email from Allan Vang. He had not received notification of the Appeal being filed and was doing his follow-up Inspection at the property and was confronted by the owner. Owner stated that Inspector Vang could have been shot at for entering his private property.

I would appreciate if this could be attached to the file and addressed at the Hearing.

Thank you,
Dick

Dick,

I was not aware of the appeal being filed today regarding this property. As I approached the property this morning for the reinspection a gentleman drove super-fast into the driveway and came out asking who I was. I introduced myself and explained to him what my reason was there. The gentleman stated he was the property owner and stated he appealed the letter and show me a portion of a letter that appear to be from the city council with some pen writing on. I kindly told him that it was ok if he had appealed and walked off the property. He stated you could have been shot at for entering my private property that I own and pay taxes on.

Respectfully,

Allan Vang
