Mr. Novak,

Apologies for the delay in following up on our phone conversation yesterday. As we discussed, your hearing has been rescheduled to Tuesday, January 13, 2026 between 10 am and 12 pm via phone.

As mentioned, because we call from Teams, the incoming number from the City shows up as 612-315-7905.

Sorry we weren't able to connect on Tuesday during the hearing time. Please, let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks,
Joanna

Mr. Novak,

We just spoke on the phone, and I Transferred you to the Legislative Hearing Team. It sounds like you were able to reschedule the hearing on a new date.

Please note: you should not contact any councilmember until after the final vote has been taken on this matter. Doing so would violate ex parte communication rules.

The legislative hearing staff will follow up confirming the new date/time of your hearing.

COUNCIL Member Anika Bowie,

Please help!!, I need your help in the fight for the removal of my excessive assessment for 586 Burgess st.
On 12 9 I was to plead my case with a legislativehearings@ci.stpaul.mn.us, I never received that meeting. As I am working 15 hr. Days during December I can not make the chamber meeting today 12/10. I would like that the matter be delayed till after January, so I can meet with you first.

Thank you!!
