

A photograph of a two-story house with light-colored siding and a dark roof. The house has several windows, including a dormer window on the roof. In the foreground, there is a large, rectangular yellow sign with handwritten text in black ink. The sign is placed on a lawn with some weeds and grass. In the background, there are trees and a fence.

Sadly this is the view out of my frontdoor, of a house that has been torn down due to the relentless pursuit of one Person. I am very concerned about my seizable investment into the rehab of my house as it relates to the care + future of such spaces in the Community
