- This was how the basement looked the day after mom passed.
- This was how the house was left, but told the Problem was fixed.
  - More damage after "Fixed" than before.

- under MN Municipal tort liability act - cities + local government can be held liable for damage.

- Cap that they supposedly replaced but was still leaking fecal matter into the basement

- Does this look like the plumbing is fixed?

- Just another view of basement after being told the problem was fixed.

- Also tried to call Ramsey County after moms passing to get things resolved only to be told "she passed so it was no longer an emergency".

- Do these pictures look like the plumbing was fixed.
