Re: Application for Appeal – Revocation of Fire Certificate of Occupancy and Order to Vacate for 46 Milton Street North, St. Paul, MN dated October 5, 2012. Ref # 107061

William Mitchell College of Law is appealing the above referenced Revocation of Fire Certificate of Occupancy and Order to Vacate for the building located at 46 Milton Street North (the “Revocation and Order”).

The College has corrected the deficiencies identified in Sections 1 through 4 and 6 of the Revocation and Order and will correct the deficiencies identified in Sections 5, 9 and 10 of the Revocation and Order on or before November 30, 2012.

Since last summer, the College has been working with Mr. Paul Dubruiel of the City’s Department of Planning and Economic Development to determine the most appropriate method of changing the Property’s zoning to cure the deficiencies described in Sections 7 and 8 of the Revocation and Order. On October 12, 2012, the College submitted an application to the Department of Planning and Economic Development for an amendment to the College’s existing Conditional Use Permit to expand the Permit’s boundaries to include 46 Milton Street North. It is the College’s understanding that this amendment to the Conditional Use Permit amendment, if granted by the City, will cure the deficiencies described in Sections 7 and 8 of the Revocation and Order.

The College requests that the City stay enforcement of the Revocation and Order until the City takes final action on the College’s Conditional Use Permit Amendment application. Based on information Mr. Dubruiel has provided, it is the College’s understanding that the College’s application will be heard by the City’s Zoning Committee at its November 8, 2012 meeting and by the Planning Commission at its November 16, 2012 meeting.

Sincerely,

William Mitchell College of Law
