

As the Executive Director of the Twin Cities Jazz Festival, I support the sound variance for the June 25th JazzFest show from 7-8:30 p.m. at Langford Clinic at Highland Parkway and Cleveland Avenue. Jazz is an acoustic form of music and will not be that loud to create any serious disturbances for anyone. The only thing that is amplified is the singer.

Thank you for your consideration,

Respectfully submitted,

Steve Heckler