

Chickett is 88 years old. She is worried about the streetcar issue. She has been taking the bus for 50 years. She has two concerns:

- 1) She does not know how the mortuaries will handle this. The cars were all lined up at a funeral she went to the other day. The cars would not be able to do that if there were streetcars down that street.
- 2) There is a Fire Department there. How would the fire trucks get out when they are constructing the tracks?

Chickett said she will try to attend the public hearing tonight.

She is strongly against the streetcar issue. She will probably bring down her mother Gerry Chickett to speak at the public hearing tonight.
