Re: 1393 and 1395 Breda
St. Paul, Minnesota

Dear Mr. Campbell:

The buildings at 1393-95 Breda Street were built in 1910 and 1915 respectively, and pre-date the zoning code; as such they are considered legal nonconforming and may continue in use. As both buildings are on one lot, they may not be separated by a land division. The zoning code prohibits subdivisions which create lots smaller than the minimum allowed in the district they are located in.

Sincerely,

Glenn A. Erickson
