Hi Jeff,

Thanks for reaching out to Milwaukee Tool. Unfortunately, we don't have a program in place to support your request long term, but we would love to support in a small way by providing (2) M18 FUEL Sawzalls. These are really the best on the market right now, and outperforming 28V tools. Might be nice to get you started on the M18 system to make future tool purchases less expensive. I'll give you a couple M18 batteries with these Sawzalls so any future tool purchases can be the cheaper bare tools.

What do you think?
