To whom it may concern:

Biagini Bros. Inc. is appealing this decision being levied by the city. We have been renting the building at our current location for over twenty years, and have never been informed of any zoning violation in all the time we have been at this location. The company has one commercial truck, trailer, and bobcat located in a fenced in yard behind the building. They have been there for the entire time that we have been renting. The equipment is used in the everyday operation of the company. It is active equipment, and is not there for storage. In conclusion, we have always kept the yard clean and orderly, and all equipment is properly insured and licensed.

Sincerely,
Biagini Bros. Inc.
