Dear Ms. Vang:

I am writing to thank you for the extension that I was granted. Unfortunately I may need a much longer extension in my case. As you know I had spinal surgery on April 25th., 2016. On May 10th., 2016 I was admitted to Regions Hospital due to complications with my surgery. I was discharged on May 27th., 2016. Unfortunately, I was discharged with serious complications to my mobility. Basically, right now I can't really walk and thus unable to attend Public Hearing on June 15th., 2016. I am very much invested in resolving compliance issues with my property but it is very much important for me to get my health back, as much as possible, before I can start working on those issues. I tried to speak to someone today (June 14th., 2016) in person, but each time ended up leaving a voice mail. I hope it was your extension that I left two messages on. I can keep you updated regarding my health or please feel free to contact me on the phone numbers that I provided you with. As I indicated in my original appeal I suspect that I may need substantial time extension due to serious issues with my health.

Sincerely,

Philip Varchenko
