To Whom It May Concern,

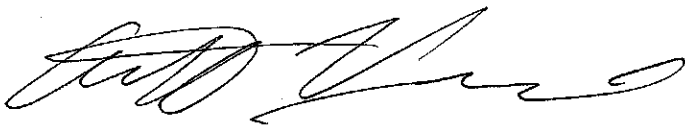

I would like to appeal the fee on the vacant building registration for 831 Smith for multiple reasons. The first being the property had to be put on the vacant building registration due to my inability to get back to St. Paul for a Fire Safety Inspection with Dan Klien within a month of notice, as I currently live in Denver, Colorado. Dan Klien informed me that the home would be registered as a category 1 vacant building and there would not be any fees associated with it. Once I am able to get back to Minnesota I can have the necessary inspections done to have it released from the vacant building list.

I bought this home from a family friend as investment / possible place for my brother and me to live. However, I received a promotion from work and had to move to Colorado. My brother could no longer afford to pay the rent by himself so it is currently unoccupied, as I have not had time to find tenants or a reliable property management company. I plan to take a week vacation from work and fly back to Minnesota in October to interview possible new tenants and find a property management company. This is not something I have felt comfortable doing over the phone as it can be very risky.

I fully to expect to have all necessary inspections done and to have a tenant living in this home by the start of November. For the reasons above I ask for your consideration in waiving the fee.

Please feel free to call me directly with any questions or concerns that you may have.

Thank you for your consideration,
