depressed and was not maintaining what I should have with the love and support of my family. I'm requesting ownership of my home again. →

This house is All I have left. It's how I maintain a monthly income, its my retirement. Without this home I am 'homeless, no income and have no retirement. I beg you to have mercy on me. I will catch up on all property taxes and maintain on top of it. The house has been in my possession for 25+ years. There is a plan set in place to maintain and keep paying my property taxes on time. I promise you this will not happen again. Please give me the chance to have my home back. Without this property I become a burden to society with no financial means for over 20 years I was able to maintain this property. Life just got really hard the past 5 years, I should have asked for help sooner during my hardest times. No parent should lose a child, I lost myself during that time. Nothing mattered to me. Now that I'm in the healing stage of grief I see I did not deal with this the way I should have. I'm truly sorry for letting it get this far. Please give me the opportunity to have my home back. Please.
