went to the Trend Bar to obtain video.

Mark advised the new (trial) owners Katie and Jake Flemming told him they had some issues with their DVRs. They had 2 - the one downstairs had all the outside cameras that are shared with the building owner, and there is one upstairs that they did not know about.

The one upstairs was not functioning which is where the inside cameras record to. Mark stated he did some troubleshooting and called the manufacturer who told him to pull the hard drive to see if it would reboot. Mark stated it sounded like the DVR has not been recording for a while. Mark stated he advised the owners that the DVR was not functioning and to figure out something to get the inside cameras working as soon as possible.

The owners gave Mark their bouncer's number who told them that he had made a cell phone video before he started throwing people out of the bar.
