

RES
19-
433

3/15/2019
1:11 PM

Edward
Davis

Personally, I do not agree with the local government getting involved in setting minimum wage standards as the state and federal level of governance creates less negative externalities For due to higher mobility costs. Yet, the council decided to get involved. This study will help prove or disprove these negative externalities. It should last at least 5 years with annual reports.