RM RESIDENTIAL MULTIFAMILY STUDY

- To what extent do current RM1-RM3 zoning district standards limit residential housing opportunities?:
 - Minimum lot area per unit / Floor Area Ratio
 - Maximum lot coverage requirement (35%)
 - Parking requirements
 - Maximum height
 - Setback requirements
- How appropriate is it to apply Traditional Neighborhood (T) district design standards?

 - Reducing minimum lot area per unit by 200-300 s.f. per unit
 - Eliminating the 35% lot coverage maximum in RT and RM districts

 - Eliminating parking requirement within $\frac{1}{4}$ mile of University Ave, as it is in T districts
 - Reducing min. parking requirement for 6+ unit buildings by 25% if buildings within $\frac{1}{2}$ mile of LRT, BRT, streetcar, or arterial BRT
