Exhibit B Legal Services

Consultant agrees to perform all legal services under the Master Legal Services Agreement and each Scope of Work in accordance with the following requirements:

1. Unless directed otherwise by the CAO, all requests for legal services, advice and opinions by Consultant, and other communications between the Consultant and City or HRA shall be through the CAO.
2. The CAO shall be copied on all communications whether in the form of memos, letters, e- mails, faxes and the like.
3. The CAO shall be informed of all meetings scheduled with City or HRA staff including the project name and agenda.
4. Do not assume you know how the City or HRA will decide upon or handle a particular matter or issue. Simply because it has been the City's or HRA's custom or practice in the past does not mean it should or will continue to be the same in the matter you are currently handling.
5. For most files, it should be unnecessary to involve more than one attorney. If the case requires more involvement than one attorney, prior approval must be secured from the CAO.
6. Do not "double up" at meetings or court hearings. Unless prior approval has been obtained, the City or HRA will not pay for more than one attorney at any meeting or court hearing.
7. The client is the City or HRA and the City or HRA, through their respective executive director and project managers, makes the decisions on all business negotiations and other items regarding a project. Your role as outside legal counsel is to provide legal counsel and advice to the project managers and executive director, and provide the City or HRA with possible courses of action, options and solutions.
8. It is important to listen to the needs of the project manager and to draft clear, concise and easy to understand language that effectuates the intentions of the City or HRA.
9. If it appears that the amount of attorney's fees will greatly exceed the original estimate or "not to exceed" amount, then you should notify the project manager as soon as possible so that appropriate action can be taken to minimize ongoing expenses or fund the increased costs.

Exhibit C Fee Ranges

Type of Bond	Range of Fee
Utility Revenue Bond	$10,000-$25,000
Assessment Bonds	$10,000-$25,000
TIF Bonds	$10,000-$40,000
PFA Notes	Hourly Basis; $275 per hour
Lease Purchase Bonds	$15,000 - $30,000
Sales Tax Bonds	$15,000 - $50,000
Abatement Bonds	$10,000 - $30,000
CIP Bonds	$10,000 - $30,000
Street Reconstruction Bonds	$10,000 - $30,000
Equipment Certificates	$10,000 - $20,000

If the types of bonds listed above include more complicating factors, the fees above would be increased by $5,000 to $20,000 (depending on the added complexity of the bond issue). Complicating factors include private use, variable rate interest, letters of credit, indentures, significant legal research, loan agreements for bank-placed bonds, or new legislation.

IRS audits and examination of tax-exempt bonds are handled at a rate of $275 per hour.

The above schedules assume that the bond issues will be a fixed rate issue. In the event the bonds are sales tax revenue bonds or tax increment bonds or issued as a floating rate issue, with liquidity or credit enhancement provisions, City or HRA and Consultant will separately negotiate a different arrangement, which may be a “not-to-exceed” fee.

Consultant shall bill the City and HRA on a quarterly basis of each year for the services provided hereunder unless other terms are mutually agreed upon by the City or HRA and Consultant. In the event of termination of this Master Agreement, Consultant shall be paid for its services rendered up to and including the day upon which termination is effective. Each invoice submitted by Consultant shall separately itemize, and state the fees, names of the lawyers, amount of time, nature of work performed, and disbursements attributable to, each separate matter to which such bill relates.

In the event Consultant fails to comply with any terms or conditions of this Master Agreement or to provide in any manner the work or services as agreed to herein, the CAO reserves the right to withhold any payment until the CAO is satisfied that corrective action has been taken or completed. This option is in addition to and not in lieu of the City’s and HRA’s right to termination as provided in Sections 15 and 16 of this Master Agreement.
