Sent an email to the P/O explaining that the pending assessment is referred to the property, not the person. Explained that he should contact his realtor to explore the previous owner paying for this pending assessment.

Good afternoon,

We received the notice attached below for a delinquent garbage bill for service provided October through December of 2019. We just moved into this house and were not the homeowners until March 26, 2020.

I attached two of the many closing documents we got. These show the address, closing date, buyers, sellers, numbers, etc...

Please respond to this email to let me know you got it. Also, please let me know if any further documentation is needed.

Thank you in advance for your consideration and response.

Respectfully,

Jon & Bonnie Weber
