I think we should remove the late fees for Q1 2020. It sounds like there was just some confusion with the home sale. The Q2 2020 bill looks correct. It's just confusing as they also list the late fees. If you look at what is actually quoted its the base charge for a medium and large cart.

Hey Chris,

When you get a chance, could you call me about the attached bill? The property owner is contesting the late fees on their assessment and the Quarter 1 invoice does look a little weird. I have also attached the property owner's summary of the issue.

Thank you!
