"This is in regards to the assessment for street sweeping and lighting. We definitely objected. We paid property taxes. You are now double taxing again. What you people are doing, I would think they could considered rackets hearing. You know you charges us for sealcoat when you didn't even get sealcoat my whole alley. You didn't even do in front of our..but I have the picture but you blurred them out when I brought them to down to show ya. I watched the video. You're stealing our money and now you want take more money. We paid taxes. It's funny, we paid property taxes but we get nothing for it. Everything you people do, you charged for it. That's double taxation! Of course, we don't agree to it. This is Chris Diekman, D as in David, i-e-k-m-a-n. First name, Christopher, C-h-r-i-s. That's good enough because that's what I go by. Chris Diekman, 1791 Stillwater Avenue East. I don't agree with any assessments. You um you charged us property taxes. When are we going to start getting something for our taxes. You don't even abide by your own rules. Your property has wrecked my garage. Your property has wrecked the end of our alley. You continued to get sued and you don't care because it's taxpayers' money you are using and you continue to lose when you get sued but you keep going. No, we do not approve of an assessment of any kind. We paid property taxes. That's what property taxes are for. Again, that's for 1791 Stillwater Avenue East. 651-278-8160. When are you trying to quit trying to steal our money. You have a good day."
