Subject: Appeal an Assessment

Hi, I recently received a letter claiming that St Paul had come and removed a load of construction debris from my property. I am currently in the process of remodeling and I had that pile stacked up neatly on a concrete pad 20ft away from the back alley. Then one day I look outside and my pile is gone. They had no right to come and take it and if we weren't allowed to have a pile of debris we should have received a warning letter first.
