Subject: RE: 1313 Seminary Ave

All,

The trade inspectors are not comfortable entering a house that looks like someone is living there. The garage is completely full of personal belongings and the house has all rooms filled with furniture along with what appeared to be food stored in the kitchen area indicating it has been used for shelter. The owner has stated no one is living there. The owner should have personal belongings removed.

Reid,

Please talk with Nathan about why the Plumbing and Mechanical Inspector have not completed the new Code Inspection. Lets find out when they can get that CCI out to Lisa Allred.
