- 12 RES 20-1477 Declaring October 2020 Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

(Council President Brendmoen read the resolution into the record.)

Rebecca Cline said 2020 has been difficult. For victims of domestic violence, the degree and number of victims has been horrendous. The types of violence have become worse. They wouldn't be able to do their work if it wasn't for their partners (mentioned several programs). We are all in this together. She was on a radio show today. People called in about some of the things they were experiencing. That would never happen in this community. The women she works with are so thankful. When everything is closed down, all of you are still here to help me.

Council President Brendmoen said there are lots of folks on the call.

Councilmember Thao thanked Cline for her work. He has referred a family to her organization. They didn't speak English. She was able to find a person to speak their language. They learned about their own rights. Law enforcement helped them. She doesn't just help one family; she helps hundreds of families in Saint Paul.

Councilmember Prince thanked Cline and her whole team. Every year in October, they are reminded of this. They do difficult and challenging work. It has become an international model. Here's to another strong year and hopefully where we see a reduction in numbers.

Councilmember Yang expressed her gratitude to Ms. Cline. One person who is experiencing this, it is a ripple effect. This is an issue that effects so many other issues.

Councilmember Tolbert thanked people for organizing this. This is talking about people who have lost their lives. We have a similar resolution every year about this time. We are celebrating the groundbreaking work and we are mourning the people who did not get help in time. City Attorney's Office, County Attorney, and police are involved. So grateful for the work they do.

Councilmember Noecker said they read this every year. There is a saying that anyone who saves one person saves the entire world. She is grateful for the work they do.

Proposed 2021 Budget Presentation from Human Rights and Equal Economic Opportunity

Director Valerie Jensen from HREEO is here.

Jensen showed her screen. She talked about HREEO's mission: "serving Saint Paul residents and businesses by advancing justice and equity through education, advocacy, and enforcement." They came up with their values: trust and accountability, community inclusion, openness, and continuous improvement. HREEO is 1.6% of the City's budget. She talked about the current vacancies, budget changes, budget savings. There were detailed non-personnel savings, which are things they had to cut to meet budget dollars. She gave an updated labor standards investigations.

Councilmember Prince thanked her for all the work to put together the Labor Standards Advisory Group. There were lessons learned in Minneapolis. There may be an opportunity to get ahead of the curve in figuring out what not to do. Labor Standards Position 2, is she planning to fill that position in 2021. Jensen responded they have 4 positions in Labor Standards. They had 2 positions already and 2 positions added. Because of COVID, they left those positions open. In 2021, they will fill one with one being left open. The way it works now, they will be filling one in the first quarter of 2021.

Prince says that she wonders if they can maintain the demands and rigors of the work with the staffing they have available. Jensen responded that they want to be able to meet the needs of the residents of the City. They want to make sure the person has the right skills. Alicia is the other labor standards person. Her ability to hit the ground running is substantial. Of course, they are constantly reviewing the staffing and staffing needs. Right now by bringing someone in, they are set for the first 9 months of 2021.

Councilmember Noecker said she is curious about the standards used to decide when they need to staff up. Jensen went into detail about the time it takes for a case to go through. Some of these are a long time, but it is case dependent. The other thing is they stay in direct contact throughout the investigation process. The complainants are well aware of what they are trying to do on their behalf. They want to do what is best for the complainant.

Jensen talked about the 2021 budget in the General Fund.

Noecker asked about the Mayor's equity initiatives. Jensen said she does not control that budget. Toni Newborn will be speaking on that at another time.

Councilmember Thao asked about the minority business development. Jensen said there are a variety of things that fall in that. It was housed in PED (Planning and Economic Development). It's different than CIRT. It is money they contract with different community partners for minority, small, and women owned businesses. It might be working with small contractors to do training on how to get contracts with the City.

Thao said that is the CIRT program, right? Jensen responded, no, CIRT is a separate fund.

Thao asked how it would be communicated. PED has not mentioned this. Jensen said the money for that was given to HREEO 2 to 3 years ago. It used to be in a special fund. Now it is part of the general fund. When she was a small business owner, she had to go through the CIRT process and work through the CIRT team. The Minority Business Fund is different. It is set aside. It is a grant program to do the work that HREEO cannot do on its own, for example the formerly incarcerated program.

Thao asked how do people utilize it. Jensen said they contacted businesses, asked for solicitation, people submitted proposals. Those programs are still going on.

Jensen said this is her 2021 budget change.

Jensen said they have 3 contracts: contract with the department; contract for housing and urban development for investigations; and the RiverPrint fund.

Council President Brendmoen said they will follow up through Holly with questions.

14 RES 20-1478

Approving the Audit Committee's recommendation to audit the customer and constituent services the City provides to the residents and businesses of Saint Paul.

Councilmember Noecker said she welcomes people to speak about this. They have been meeting for 4 to 6 months. They conducted their first order of business. They did a community survey and got over 100 responses. They parsed through all of that. They came through a recommendation to study how the City does customer and constituent service. It should be easy to access support from City Hall. There is boundless activity to do it well. She is excited to support the City's recommendation today.

Councilmember Prince said the work of the committee has been satisfying. When they added 3 community advisers last week, they took the list of topics, and got down to about 9 topics from over 100 that were submitted. Innovation Chief Matt Larson thought they were good topics. The second thing he said is that a person shouldn't need to know who to call when you are looking for an answer. At community meetings, people are unfamiliar with the call number in DSI. We continue to look at ways to streamline this issue, including City Council. We have a chance to make it even better.

Councilmember Yang said she has been reflecting on community engagement. This reaffirms what she always talks about. She is so proud of the work that has happened already.

Councilmember Thao said he is excited about this and the work of Noecker, Prince, and Yang to get us to this point. We want to run an accountable government and make sure the outcomes are equitable.

Councilmember Jalali said she appreciates this direction and will be interested in the direction this will take. Some of it is not even having to snake your way into the secret route. There are so many hard working places. This overall direction is a good starting point.

Council President Brendmoen said she is happy with the selection. She is excited for the back end piece as well.

ORDINANCES

An ordinance is a city law enacted by the City Council. It is read at four separate council meetings and becomes effective after passage by the Council and 30 days after publication in the Saint Paul Legal Ledger. Public hearings on ordinances are held at the third reading.

First Reading

- 15 Ord 20-32 Amending section 220.05 of the Legislative Code, to set rates for base level garbage service to be effective January 1, 2021 and changing the rate calculation from a rate that includes taxes to a rate that excludes taxes.

Council President Brendmoen said Chris Swanson is here from Public Works.

Swanson presented his screen. This sets the rate for 2021 per the contract with the consortium. He asks that the Council approve the ordinance. There is no change in fuel. There is an increase in tipping fee. Some of the increase comes from COVID. The consortium is in agreement with these numbers. These are all pre-set and clear items. Total increase in tonnage. These are the components of the 2020 rate. Ultimately, these are the rates the residents will see on their quarterly invoice. Residents will see an increase in their bill for the medium and large carts. This is the same process used to set the 2020 rates. The rates do not reflect state and county taxes. Finally, there are 4 carts sizes, 2 or 3 bulky items per year, walk ups if there is a need, temporary service hold. In closing, he thanked them again for the opportunity to present.

Brendmoen asked about curbside compost pickup. Swanson explained what Ramsey County does. It will be available in 2023 or 2024. They are making upgrades to a facility. They are working closely with the County. As his office gets more information, he will update Council.

Brendmoen said there is still time to use bulky items.

Councilmember Noecker said she appreciates the information and the clear cut formula. It's the right way to do it. It is not political. It is scientific. The increase is modest. When starting the program, people talked about the incentive for having a smaller cart. The rates are still lower than 2018 and 2019.

Swanson stated that is his main point: the rates are lower than 2018 and 2019.

Brendmoen said she guesses that the rates have come down. Three more readings. Public hearings will be in 3 weeks. A staff report at our first reading is interesting.

This ordinance will be laid over to October 28 for second reading.

PUBLIC HEARINGS

- 17 ABZA 20-6 Public hearing to consider the appeal of Michael Buelow to a decision of the Board of Zoning Appeals (BZA) denying two variance requests for lot coverage and rear yard setback at 1493 Highland Pkwy. (Public hearing closed on October 21.)

Matthew Graybar, DSI (Department of Safety and Inspections) gave a staff report. This was heard on September 24. The variance request was denied by a vote of 4 to 3. This is 1493 Highland. It is setback with the rest of the houses. There was a house there previously, which was demolished. They got approval to construct what the applicant is proposing. These are the houses in the same block. There will be an addition. It will let the person with accessibility needs to access the entire house. The house was built in 1900, and it was not structurally built to support the addition. Located in Planning District 15. They can build up to 40% of the lot. The applicant is proposing to maximize the use. It is 40.2%. (Showed drawings of what the house will look like from different angles.) Staff recommends approval of the variances.

Councilmember Prince says it looks like there are some concerns that there had been 27 people who signed the petition who were not in support of the variances. Graybar responded yes there are owners who are not on the block. The entire block is not against it.

Prince says the BZA (Board of Zoning Appeals) denied the variances on 3 and 6. Graybar responded yes, there is no longer a difficulty in constructing. (He explained the problems.)

Council President Brendmoen says she used to live on that block.

Councilmember Tolbert said this is a unique case. There has been a lot of neighborhood participation. Some facts are relevant and some are not. Because it is an important decision and a lot of competing facts, it will be helpful to close the public hearing. His motion is to close the public hearing and lay over to next week.
