Ms. Moermond,

20 minutes ago I had a phone call from Ms. Johnstone. She wanted me to “let you know that she can’t find the keys” to her RV. I told her that there wasn’t really anything the legislative hearing team could do for her now, as it was a making finding hearing and the nuisance wasn’t abated on deadline per Council resolution and it was going in front of them this afternoon at 3:30 with the recommendation the nuisance wasn’t abated on deadline and authorizing DSI to take action.

I told her she could testify and if she would like I could take it via phone and write it to give to council. She said “no, just tell them that I can’t find my keys” (or something to that effect). She had no specific ask or request for a delay. I told her that I would pass that message along, but that to be honest I didn’t see it changing the outcome since she has had since March to take care of this. She said “just tell them I can’t find my keys, that’s all”.

Thanks,
Joanna
