RES 15-254Recognizing the Saint Paul Police Department Community Billboard as a community asset.

Councilmember Bostrom said the billboard on top of the police team office at Minnehaha and Payne had been under discussion for a long time, and this was an opportunity to put it to good use and promote the good things happening on the East Side. He said there would be no cost to the City, because there was a party that would pay for the billboard. He moved approval of the resolution, which he said recognized that the billboard was an asset that the Council supported.

Councilmember Brendmoen said the conversation had been going on for well over two years, and previous to the current dilapidated it state the billboard had a message from the police department and a faded photograph of a police officer. She said she understood ward preference, but the billboard was on the border of wards 5, 6, and 7, and she had been intimately involved in conversations for the whole period of time. She said she was interested in hearing more about funding and plans for the message on the billboard and a timeline for getting it done. She noted the existence of a Facebook group called Tear Down the Board with 185 members, and said to take a vote without involving the people who were interested and concerned would not be appropriate. She said she would like to learn more and was glad Councilmember Bostrom was taking leadership on the issue, and she asked that the matter be laid over for a public hearing.

Councilmember Bostrom the City Council was able to make this kind of decision, and the District 5 Community Council, Payne Arcade Business Association (PABA), and ESNDNC had all expressed support for maintaining the billboard for the purposes of advertising the good things happening in the area. He said he recognized that there were Council members and community members who just didn't like billboards. He said was in Ward 6 and he would appreciate the courtesy of support but was willing to take a stand on the issue. He said there was business support on Payne and Arcade. He showed photographs of the billboard in its current condition, along with a representation of how it might look, and noted that the Mayor's office would have the final say on the message that would appear. He read the dedication message from 1996. Council President Lantry noted that the billboard was blank in 1996 when the dedication plaque was placed. Councilmember Bostrom said the intersection needed some work, and he was willing to assist in its turnaround. He asked for the Council members' support, and said the Mayor's office was looking for direction.

Council President Lantry read from a resolution passed unanimously in 2002 by the Council, including Councilmember Bostrom, regarding the community's desire to reduce the number of billboards; and the City's comprehensive advertising sign ordinance which was designed to reduce billboards and define all existing billboards as nonconforming uses. She said this was an example of blight. She said the donation would have to be accepted by the Council, and she expressed concern about choosing a message that everyone would find positive. She said it sent a bad message for the City to do something that was against City policy. She said there would have to be a committee to oversee the billboard and seek additional funds to keep it maintained, and donations sought to support the East Side would be better spent elsewhere. She said she would not support the motion, and felt it was disingenuous and disrespectful for this to be brought in under suspension given the amount of time it had been worked on by herself and Councilmember Brendmoen as well as Councilmember Bostrom.

Councilmember Bostrom said he suspected the response would have been the same if the item had been brought in earlier and not under suspension, given some Council members' general opposition to billboards. He said the Mayor was looking for direction and would be making the final decision as to the message. He said the billboard was not dilapidated, but was solid and an integral part of the building.

Councilmember Stark said he respected the desire to highlight things going on in the community, but felt this did go against City policy. He said if this were privately owned and had sat vacant, it would have been ordered to be torn down. He noted the potential problem of deciding what the message would be, and said while he agreed with the desire to promote the area, the primary issue was City policy. He said to bring in something under suspension that was against City policy didn't make any sense.

Councilmember Brendmoen said she respected Councilmember Bostrom's leadership, but constituents had concerns and didn't respect ward boundaries as much as the Council. She moved to lay the matter over to the following week's public hearings.

Councilmember Bostrom said he would speak against a layover, and the Council had the ability to take this action. He reiterated that District 5, PABA, and ESNDG had all already spoken, and a layover would not change the minds of Council members.

Vote on motion to lay over. Yeas - 3 Nays - 4 (Bostrom, Thao, Tolbert, Thune)

Councilmember Bostrom moved approval of the resolution. Yeas - 4 Nays - 3 (Lantry, Stark, Brendmoen)
