Kristine Wolfe-Weeks appeared.

Ms. Mai Vang reported that this assessment Order was done September 2, 2010. Mr. Essling stated that it was inspected on September 1, 2010 and there was no evidence of garbage service.

Ms. Wolfe-Weeks stated that she had been in jail and there had been squatters in her house. Mr. Essling said that the City provided garbage from September 1, 2010 to December 1, 2010 (fourteen (14) weeks), so, this assessment would be for one 2-week period of that. Ms. Wolfe-Weeks responded that she hadn't been aware because her mail had been stolen and her house is in foreclosure. She now has a P.O. box, and she needs to walk away from the house. Mr. Essling stated that if Ms. Wolfe-Weeks walks away from the house, all of the assessments will be added onto the taxes. The lender will be responsible for them; they go with the property, not the individual.

Ms. Nhia Vang will recommend approval.
