

Legislation Details (With Text)

File #: RES 15-1117 Version: 1
Type: Resolution Status: Passed
In control: City Council
Final action: 6/17/2015
Title: Recognizing Minnesota Teacher of the Year Amy Hewett-Olatunde.
Sponsors: Russ Stark
Indexes:
Code sections:
Attachments:

Date	Ver.	Action By	Action	Result
6/24/2015	1	Mayor's Office	Signed
6/17/2015	1	City Council	Adopted	Pass

Recognizing Minnesota Teacher of the Year Amy Hewett-Olatunde.

WHEREAS, 2015 Minnesota Teacher of the Year, Amy Hewett-Olatunde, teaches in Ward 4's Hamline Midway neighborhood at LEAP High School for immigrant students who are pursuing a high school diploma; and WHEREAS, Amy started at LEAP during her student-teacher placement 16 years ago and never left; and WHEREAS, her students have been Hmong, East African, and Somali initially, while currently most of her students are Karen, from the Thai/Burmese border; and WHEREAS, as a writing and English teacher, Amy uses poetry to help students express themselves and tell their personal stories; and WHEREAS, Amy is a very positive person who likes people and takes an interest in students' native cultures and individual experiences, working to balance students' academic needs with their emotional needs; and WHEREAS, Amy has been known to join her graduates on their first day of college, and has generously paid for books so that they won't be afraid to go to college, and so they know she is still there to support them; and WHEREAS, beyond her skill and ease in the classroom, Amy also takes a leadership role in the school and has recently received her doctorate in education from Hamline University; and WHEREAS, there were 123 candidates for 2015 teacher of the year; and WHEREAS, Amy Hewett-Olatunde was recently named the Teacher of the Year in Minnesota by Education Minnesota; and NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Saint Paul City Council thanks Amy Hewett-Olatunde for her contributions to LEAP, her students, and to the City of Saint Paul, and congratulates her for her well-deserved recognition.