Appeal of AAA Midway Inside Storage to a Revocation of Fire Certificate of Occupancy and Order to Vacate at 1400 SELBY AVENUE.

Per attached letter from Attorney, "First, my client believes the inspection may have overlooked the actual functioning of the fire suppression system or otherwise may not have been accurate.

Secondly, this order would present an extreme hardship. My client rents space to approximately 300 entities and individuals who cannot possibly access and remove their property by the date of the notice. My client is a small business owner, who does not own the building. AAA Midway Inside Storage, a St. Paul based small business, will not be able to survive this.

My client would like the notice lifted and order vacated. In the alternative, my client would like sufficient time (90-120 days) to prepare his clients for this change."
