Stated Reason for Appeal (if given): Property owner stated that the former owner passed away in September 2021. During that time, the previous property owner's brother was living in the home refusing entry to other family members and claiming "squatting rights." He was not paying the garbage invoices during that time. No one is currently living in the property.

Staff Comments: Due to the death of the previous property as well as the circumstances following their death, staff recommends removing the assessment as a courtesy.
