Comments: Inspector issued a summary abatement order after inspecting the property on a complaint of tall grass & weeds; found the lawn had not been mowed and a table was on the boulevard. Inspector gave a new compliance date on grass and issued orders to remove the table; upon re-inspection, found the lawn still had not been mowed. A work order was sent to Parks which was found to be done by owner. Inspector went out to property again and found the table had not been removed. Issued a work order to Parks which found the table had been removed. Inspector sent two EC bills - one for the lawn not being mowed by compliance date - the other for the table not being removed by compliance date.
