Establishing names for four new parks in the Highland Bridge development.

WHEREAS, the Highland Bridge development (Ford site) includes the establishment and development of four new public parks; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Parks and Recreation led a community process to design and name this new parkland; and

WHEREAS, these four park parcels Park A, Park B, Park C, and Park D were established by a plat in 2020 with the intention of formal naming in 2021; and

WHEREAS, Park A is located at 2290 Ford Parkway and serves as the prominent entrance point into the Highland Bridge development and also to Saint Paul from Minneapolis; and

WHEREAS, the name Gateway serves as a geographic marker of the entrance to the city of Saint Paul; and

WHEREAS, Gateway also is symbolic of the place we are in time and moving from the past to the present; and

WHEREAS, the land referred to as Park B, 875 Mount Curve, is in the location where the Ford Assembly Plant once stood; and

WHEREAS, auto industry Union laborers played a prominent role in this period of history and the United Auto Workers Local 879 organized to improve working conditions at Ford Motor Company; and

WHEREAS, the word Assembly also indicates the concept of gathering, and unity; and

WHEREAS, the land referred to as Park C, 2230 Montreal Avenue, Park C has the most natural condition of the parks and directly connects the stormwater in the development to Hidden Falls and a creek that leads to the Mississippi River; and

WHEREAS, it is a stated priority of the City to recognize that Saint Paul is on Dakota land and a priority to include indigenous communities during the planning aspects of the Highland Bridge development, including the creation and naming of parks; and

WHEREAS, Uŋčī Makŋa (pronounced oon-CHEE Ma-KAH), Dakota for Mother Earth, was endorsed by Dakota representatives engaged in the naming process for this park space; and

WHEREAS, the land referred to as Park D, 2120 Montreal, was largely undeveloped due to steep slopes and wetlands; and

WHEREAS, there is a community desire and recommendation to honor the coyote pack that lives in the area; and

WHEREAS, Míča (pronounced MEE-cha) is the abbreviated way to say Coyote in Dakota and it was similarly endorsed by Dakota representatives; and

WHEREAS, the City of Saint Paul Parks and Recreation Commission ("Commission") considers naming under Commission Policy #7, Naming Parks and Recreation Sites, 2012 Update, which provides criteria for naming of parks; and

WHEREAS, by Commission Resolution #21-06, April 8, 2021, the Commission endorsed the proposed changes in names and found the proposal complies with the spirit of the Commission policy; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the City Council authorizes renaming the platted Park A to Gateway Park; and, be it
