Amending Chapter 60 of the Administrative Code to clarify hardship deferral language.

WHEREAS, per Minnesota Statutes, Section 435.193, any county, statutory or home rule charter city, or town, making a special assessment may, at its discretion, defer the payment of that assessment for any homesteaded property; and

WHEREAS, this law requires that in order to defer such assessments, cities must pass an ordinance or resolution, to permit deferral of special assessments for persons owning and homesteading property who are sixty-five (65) years of age or older; or retired by virtue of a permanent and total disability, or who is a member of the Minnesota National Guard or other military reserves who is ordered into active military service, for whom it would be a hardship to make payments on special assessments levied upon said homesteaded property; and

WHEREAS, the City adopted an ordinance pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 435.193, Saint Paul Administrative Code Chapter 64, which states any person sixty-five (65) years of age or older, or retired by virtue of a permanent and total disability for whom it would be a hardship to make the payments, owning and homesteading property, and which person meets the qualifications of hardship as defined herein, may defer certain assessments; and

WHEREAS, the Council now desires to add military persons to its eligibility list and to clarify the procedures to be followed and the types of assessments that are eligible for deferral, leaving unchanged the definition of hardship; and

WHEREAS, the Council is amending a number of ordinances to clarify which assessments qualify for hardship deferral now, therefore,

The City of Saint Paul does ordain, that Administrative Code Chapter 60 is hereby amended to read as follows:
