Public hearing to consider the appeal of MJ Properties of a decision by the Board of Zoning Appeals which upheld the Zoning Administrator's decision requiring the removal of all temporary real estate rental signs exceeding that allowed by code (which is one real estate sign not exceeding six square feet in size) at 1440 Randolph Ave.

In response to a complaint regarding the amount of signage displayed on this property, the Department of Safety and Inspections (DSI) sent an order on January 7, 2011, requiring the signs to be removed. The applicant is appealing the order. She believes that the code does not apply to her signs, that the code is discriminatorily enforced, and that it violates the First Amendment to the Constitution.

The applicant is appealing a Zoning Administrator order to remove all temporary real estate rental signs exceeding that allowed by code (which is one real estate sign not exceeding 6 square feet in size).
