Six Findings Necessary to Grant Variance

- In harmony with the general purposes and intent of the zoning code
- Consistent with the comprehensive plan
- Practical difficulties in complying with the provision (Economic considerations alone do not constitute practical difficulties)
- Plight is due to circumstances unique to the property, not created by the landowner
- Will not permit unallowed use
- Will not alter the essential character of the surrounding area

Finding 1: The variance is in harmony with the general purposes and intent of the zoning code.

Contrary to the intent of the code, as this would create a cluster, which could create an institutional environment for the residents within.

Contrary to section 60.103 to promote and to protect the public health, safety, morals, aesthetics, economic viability and general welfare of the community, to prevent the overcrowding of land and undue congestion of population, and to fix reasonable standards to which buildings, structures and uses shall conform.

Finding 3: The applicant has established that there are practical difficulties in complying with the provision, that the property owner proposes to use the property in a reasonable manner not permitted by the provision. Economic considerations alone do not constitute practical difficulties.

Intent of this finding is that the hardship is not self-created and the landowner cannot utilize the property in a reasonable way due to ordinance.

This request is financially driven, as their testimony primarily focused on the funding stream. The property is zoned H2, which permits multiple units. This finding is not met.

Finding 4: The plight of the landowner is due to circumstances unique to the property not created by the landowner.

This finding requires that the request be due to a hardship related to the property itself. The requested variance arises not from unique circumstances of the land but from the applicant's desire to establish a 11-resident supportive housing facility within the required separation distance.

The separation requirement affects other properties within 1,320 feet of the other supportive housing facilities in question. The plight is not unique to this property, rather, it is general to the surrounding area. This finding is not met.

Finding 6: The variance will not alter the essential character of the surrounding area.

This finding is regarding neighborhood character.

Granting the request would result in the establishment of two supportive housing facilities within close proximity (736 feet), creating a cluster of congregate living environments. This could undermine the goal of community integration and contribute to an institutional character that is not consistent with the surrounding area. This finding is not met.
