Subject: RE: appealed tax assessment for 1386 Edmund Ave

Good morning,

After reviewing your additional submission, Ms. Moermond will not be changing her recommendation that the assessment be approved. The assessment was for an Excessive Consumption fee, for orders that were valid at the time they were written (cars on what you have had admitted were not on the parking pad), and the current state of the parking space(s) and the class 5 are not relevant to the matter. There are no current open orders on this, as the file was closed April 11. Whether the current surface is durable + dustless has no relevancy to the appealed tax assessment.

Thank you,
Joanna
