Hi Mai, this is the email I received from the property owner soon after the inspection.

Think Before You Click: This email originated outside our organization.

Keith,

I'm wondering if I can have a little more specifics on the exterior painting.

Do you have any pictures of the things you want painted? The house generally does not need paint and I need some idea what you want painted.

If you could forward any pictures and or a better description that would be very helpful.

The appointment for 10:00 AM, August 6, 2025 will need to be rescheduled. I have to be out of town. Early September would be best.

Please confirm you received this.
