Dear City Council,

The home at 1066 Matilda Street belonged to my deceased mother, Bernice Oslund. She has a Reverse Mortgage on her home. The amount she owed to the bank and the value of the home were the same. In others words upon her death the home would go back to the bank.

The mortgage company was notified of her death and, they told me they would take care of it. Because they did not do this in a timely manner, the home was taken over by homeless people. Ultimately, the people were removed and the home was condemned to get them out of there.

Due to this extreme delay on the part of the mortgage company, I would now like to obtain Special Administrator rights and ultimately, purchase the home myself.

I am requesting an extension.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Lori Kroeger
